

4 TYPES OF SENTENCES

Free Halloween-Themed Worksheets

Declarative

The jack-o-lantern glowed eerily in the dark.

Interrogative

Is that a ghost or just a bedsheet?

Imperative

Please pass me the witch's broomstick.

Exclamatory

Wow, this haunted house is spooky!

Video Tutorial

Watch a short lesson on the types of sentences.

For more free grammar tutorials and workbooks, visit unSocialized.net

Sentence Sorting

Match the following sentences to the correct categories by writing a letter in the box:

A. Declarative

B. Interrogative

C. Imperative

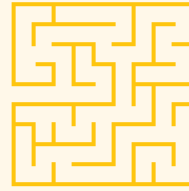

D. Exclamatory

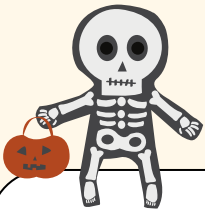

Yikes, that's a lot of candy!

The moon shone brightly on Halloween night.

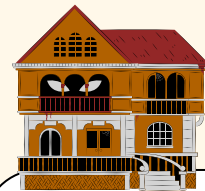

Don't be a scaredy-cat; dare to enter the haunted maze.

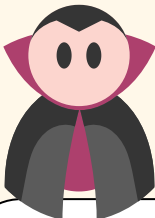

Why did the skeleton bring a ladder to the Halloween party?

Dress up as your favorite monster and join the monster mash dance-off!

The haunted mansion had creaky floors and hidden surprises.

Do you believe in ghosts and vampires?

I can't believe you made that amazing jack-o-lantern by yourself!

Wow, you look so scary in that costume!

Sentence Sorting

Answer Key:

A. Declarative
B. Interrogative

C. Imperative
D. Exclamatory

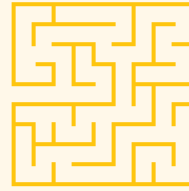

D

Yikes, that's a lot of candy!

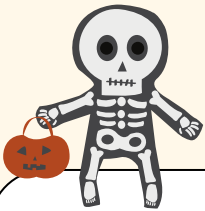

A

The moon shone brightly on Halloween night.

C

Don't be a scaredy-cat; dare to enter the haunted maze.

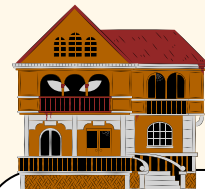

B

Why did the skeleton bring a ladder to the Halloween party?

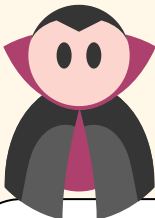

C

Dress up as your favorite monster and join the monster mash dance-off!

A

The haunted mansion had creaky floors and hidden surprises.

B

Do you believe in ghosts and vampires?

D

I can't believe you made that amazing jack-o-lantern by yourself!

D

Wow, you look so scary in that costume!

HALLOWEEN

Haunted House Adventure

Directions: Read the passage below. Identify and write the type of each sentence on the fill-in line provided (D: Declarative, Int: Interrogative, Imp: Imperative, or E: Exclamatory).

It was a dark and stormy Halloween night, and three friends, Sarah, Jake, and Emily, dared to venture into the ominous haunted house looming at the end of the street.

1. Lightning flashed, illuminating the decrepit mansion. _____
2. "Do you think it's really haunted?" whispered Sarah, her voice trembling. _____
3. "Only one way to find out," said Jake, trying to sound brave. _____

As they approached the menacing entrance, a sign warned, 4. "Enter if you dare!" _____

5. "What's that mysterious noise?" Emily inquired, her heart racing. _____

6. Suddenly, a ghostly figure floated towards them, emitting ghostly moans! _____

7. "Stay calm!" shouted Jake, gripping his flashlight tightly. _____

8. Shadows danced menacingly as they tiptoed through the dimly lit hallway. _____

9. They stumbled upon a creaky staircase leading to the unknown. _____

10. "Should we go up or stay down here?" Sarah wondered aloud. _____

Jake bravely decided, 11. "Let's explore the upper floors. _____. There may be answers there."

12. A cold gust of wind howled through the corridor, making the friends shiver with fear. _____

13. Suddenly, a trapdoor slammed shut behind them with a thunderous crash! _____

14. "We're trapped!" Emily gasped in terror. _____

Finish the rest of the story. Use different types of sentences.

HALLOWEEN

Haunted House Adventure

Answer Key:

Directions: Read the passage below. Identify and write the type of each sentence on the fill-in line provided (D: Declarative, Int: Interrogative, Imp: Imperative, or E: Exclamatory).

It was a dark and stormy Halloween night, and three friends, Sarah, Jake, and Emily, dared to venture into the ominous haunted house looming at the end of the street.

1. Lightning flashed, illuminating the decrepit mansion. D
2. "Do you think it's really haunted?" whispered Sarah, her voice trembling. Int
3. "Only one way to find out," said Jake, trying to sound brave. D

As they approached the menacing entrance, a sign warned, 4. "Enter if you dare!" Imp

5. "What's that mysterious noise?" Emily inquired, her heart racing. Int

6. Suddenly, a ghostly figure floated towards them, emitting ghostly moans! E

7. "Stay calm!" shouted Jake, gripping his flashlight tightly. Imp

8. Shadows danced menacingly as they tiptoed through the dimly lit hallway. D

9. They stumbled upon a creaky staircase leading to the unknown. D

10. "Should we go up or stay down here?" Sarah wondered aloud. Int

Jake bravely decided, 11. "Let's explore the upper floors. Imp There may be answers there."

12. A cold gust of wind howled through the corridor, making the friends shiver with fear. D

13. Suddenly, a trapdoor slammed shut behind them with a thunderous crash! E

14. "We're trapped!" Emily gasped in terror. E

Finish the rest of the story. Use different types of sentences.

ROLL THE DICE

4 Types of Sentences

Cut and tape to make a cube.
Roll the dice.
Give an example of the sentence you rolled.

